

When healing hands were wounded (High and lifted up)

F#m E D
 When healing hands were wounded
D A/C# E
 A faithful man betrayed
F#m E/G# A A/C#
 When arms of love stretched wide, we turned

 A carpenter was nailed

 And on a hill was high and lifted up
D E F#m E D D A/C# E
 High and lifted up

A window on the bloodshed
 That soaks our history
 Our hatred vented on humanity
 Our sin against the holy
 Displayed for all to see
D A/C# Bm F#m E
 We left him cursed and hanging on a tree

When healing hands were wounded
 All our wounds were healed
 For he himself has carried every ill
 Has entered all our suffering
 And borne away the pain
 His life laid down that we may live again

Forgiven for our bloodshed
 Delivered from the curse
 Behold what grace, so free, so undeserved
 A window on a new world
 Where love and mercy reign
 And all our grief and sin is washed away
